CLASS ROLL

Doris Ammerman	Mary B. Flynn
Adeline Brown	Alvin R. Greene
William C. Browning	Geraldine Hedger
Irwin Baird	Jane A. Miller
Genevieve Doane	Freda Norton
Walter L. Elliott	Judith C. Points
J. Paul Eckler	Virginia Stamper
Anna Lou Wynn

Early last fall, the Junior Class presented "New Fires" which was well received by an enthusiastic audience. The cast included each member of the class.

Freda Norton won sixth place on a dress entered in a style show at Alms and Doepke's in Cincinnati. This garment was made in the Home Economics department at school, entered in competition with the products of eighty-nine other schools.

Miss Virginia Stamper and Mr. Paul Eckler took part in the program presented by Dry Ridge on the Old School Masters radio program over Radio Station W.C.K.Y., Covington.

The Junior Class donated $7.50 to the Red Cross for flood relief work.

The Class furnished the president for the 4-H Club in the person of Judith Points.

Walter Elliott of the class was forced to drop out of school on account of illness.

Miss Virginia Stamper is our school pianist.

The Junior Class entertained the Senior Class by taking them to the Annual High School Day at Eastern State Teachers' College, Richmond, Ky. The program which had been arranged proved very interesting. Music provided by the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, a concert by the college band, and a demonstration of the Physical education program of the college were the high lights.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class has twenty-one members
Some are tall, as tall as timbers
Others are little and little will stay
But they all like to think of play

Floy Abernathy gets the giggles,
Then Mr. Shirley looks as sour as pickles
Anita Agee is tall and thin,
And talks enough to stiffen her chin.
Barnett Atha the boy with brown eyes,
To school every morning, with James Conrad he rides.

Helen Bennett, as she should do,
 Whenever she leaves, bids you adieu.
 Bobby Conrad has a very short nose
 Farther and farther outward he grows.
 Mildred Dunn well I won't say,
 But all she thinks about is Jay.
 Marie Elliott, who always has the best of luck
 Has a good time with a driver of McGee's beer truck.
 Robert Farmer so tall and slow
 Is sometimes asked questions he does not know.
 Christine Gouge well she will do,
 And someone else thinks so too.
 Mary Greene, the golden blond,
 Of sugars and sweets she is very fond.
 Kenneth Hitch, who isn't very tall,
 But he surely does play basketball.
 Charles Holbrook is full of pep, and how!
 He's always doing something the teachers won't allow.
 Vincent Metcalf a barber's son
 To basketball games he will not come.
 Edna Miller a Jonesville girl
 Without her specks she seems in a whirl.
 Corene Osborne a preachers daughter
 Laughed one day and the teacher caught her.
 Edith Osborne, an Eagle Creek lass,
 Says very little, when in class.
 Junior Phillips, who is always talking so fast
 When listening for a word it is already past.
 Charles Price, with rosy cheeks,
 Joy and happiness he always seeks.
 Bud Robinson, who on the school bus rides,
 Three-fourths the time from school he hides.
 Inez Taylor, she will pass
 So we count her the belle of the class.
 Bob Worthington a good player of basketball
 Chews when there is nothing to chew at all.

On September 7, 1936 twenty-six members enrolled in the Freshman Class. All went well for a few weeks until Virginia Wilson and Irene Lucas withdrew, that left the Freshman Class twenty-four members. Opal Ashcraft moved to Crittenden High School about the middle of October.

The Class of twenty-three then went on for the rest of the semester and began the second semester. We lost Charles Kendall, who moved to Glencoe, Kentucky. On February 17, 1937 Emma Gene Lanter moved into the school district and enrolled in our school. We now have a class of twenty-three, which we hope to keep until we graduate.

BASKET BALL

The basket ball season of 1936-37 brought forth the usual amount of thrills and disappointments. The team, with the exception of Middleton and Rich, was composed of boys who were playing their first season and, as could be expected, the first four games went into the lost column. Those games proved to be profitable, for the team gained some much-needed experience and confidence and by mid-season were rounding into a finished outfit.

Playing a regular schedule of twenty games the Cardinals won ten and lost ten. The victories were won over such teams as Corinth, Williamstown, Crittenden, Florence, Mason, Beechwood and Stamping Ground. This record speaks for itself as these teams represent the basket ball of this section.

Scoring honors for the season go to Randall Middleton, stellar guard, who rang up 175 points.

The following boys earned letters: Middleton, Rich, Flynn, Webster, Gardner, Worthington and Manager J. Rich.

The Junior team has an interesting season. Composed for the most part of small boys who were always hopesly outsized they brought compliments from visiting fans with their handling of the ball and their "fight." O. Holbrook, C. Holbrook, Hitch, Loew, "Babe" Rich, Lucas, Eckler and W. Webster made up the personnel of this team.

Graduation will take Middleton, Rich, Webster, Flynn and Gardner, leaving only Worthington for the nucleus of the 1937-38 season, but with the promising material coming from the Junior team, Dry Ridge should have a successful team.

As this publication goes to press the boys are hard at work preparing for their schedule in soft ball. Metcalf is showing real ability in the box, and the attack looks good. Games will be played with the high schools of the County.

A P O E M

There is a legend that long ago,
Where the bells of silence ring,
Dharuma, the sage, gave earth a gift
Whose worth the poets sing.
Long through the leaden hours of night,
In meditations bound,
The sage had watched, but now his lids
Like curtains slipping down,
Defeated his soaring soul:
So he cut them from him with his sword,
And threw them on the ground!
And where Dharuma's eyelids fell
The blessed tea-leaves grew,
"To relieve fatigue, delight the soul,
Strengthen the will" anew.

Thus down through the ages,
In old Japan,
The Art of the sage
Has succored man,
And men have learned
As they drink their tea
To think on immortality;
To wash the soul as well as the hands,
When the soft-toned tea-gong rings;
To find all heaven in a flower,
And beauty in simple things.
So behind each move as she drinks her tea,
This maiden of old Japan,
Lies an old, old rule, and a soul-deep thought
With roots in the heart of man.

We would drink of this nectar,
So let us go
Down the path of our friend
Where the iris blow.
"A cluster of summer trees,
A bit of sea,
The pale evening moon...."
Our way to tea.
