

(LOCATION PAPER.)

Post Office Department.

OFFICE OF THE FIRST ASSISTANT P. M. GENERAL,

Washington, D. C., March 11, 1890.

SIR: Before the Postmaster General decides upon the application for the establishment of a post office at Delia, County of Grant,

State of Ky., it will be necessary for you to carefully answer the subjoined questions, get a neighboring postmaster to certify to the correctness of the answers, and return the location paper to the Department addressed to me. If the site selected for the proposed office should not be on any mail route now under contract, only a "Special Office" can be established there, to be supplied with mail from some convenient point on the nearest mail route by a special carrier, for which service a sum equal to two-thirds of the amount of the salary of the postmaster at such office will be paid by the Department.

You should inform the contractor, or person performing service for him, of this application, and require him to execute the inclosed certificate as to the practicability of supplying the proposed office with mail, and return the same to the Department.

Very respectfully,

J. S. Clarkson
First Asst Postmaster General.

To Mr. R. C. Blain
care of the Postmaster of Stewartsville

(OVER.)

Be careful to answer the inquiries fully and accurately, or the case will not be acted upon.

DIAGRAM, EXPLANATION, AND INSTRUCTIONS.

The dot in the center of the one-mile circle represents the site of the proposed office.

The surrounding offices should be carefully located by placing dots on or between the mile circles at the exact distance, and in the right direction from the proposed one, and their names plainly written.

If it should be necessary to designate an office which is over 10 miles from the proposed one, place the dot outside of the 10-mile circle, write the name of such office, and state its distance from the proposed one.

Draw plain lines across the circle to indicate railroads, prominent public roads, mail routes, and large streams.

All writing upon this Location Paper must be plain, and with pen and ink.
